

Our River, Our Life

Prefer the choice of people

Presented By: Tamanna Akter, Fairouz Tasnim Tori, Tanvir Arafat

CHALLENGES

Bangladesh is a riverine country, river is connected with the people in every aspect of life. And the Old Brahmaputra river has shaped the lives of thousands of people. The river is undergoing through severe siltation problem which has been causing detrimental impacts on socio-economic conditions and ecology. Being an eroding river, it caused enough hassles to the people who depend on the river to let the experts think twice before restoration.

PEOPLE, THE SOURCE OF POWER

References: Rowley, J. (1993) Bhorletar: The sustainable village, People and the Planet, 2 (4), pp. 14-19.

Wetskills Bangladesh 2019 is supported by:

